Metodika:

Při práci s tímto textem využijeme nutnost sáhnout po slovníku a vyhledat v něm patřičné výrazy. Dalším úkolem je orientace v souhrnu nepravidelných anglických sloves. Poslední úkol apeluje na schopnost přemýšlet a chápat smysl textu v jeho sekvenční podobě.

An Old mother pig and her three little pigs lived in a very small house. One day Old mother pig said: „This house is too small for us. Three little pigs, you must go away. You must each make a house.“

So the first little pig went away to make a house. The first little pig met a man with some straw. The first little pig said to man: „Please, sir, sell me some straw to make a house.“ And the man said to him: „Why, you little poor pig! I will give you all the straw to make a house.“

So the first little pig made a house out of the straw. He was very happy in it. Then Old Mr. Wolf came along. He went up to the little house of straw, and said:

*„Little pig, little pig,
let me in!“*

But the first little pig said:“

*„No, no, by the hair of my chinny-chinny-chin,
I will not you let in!“*

*„Then I will haff and I will puff,
and I will blow your house in.“*

So he huffed and puffed and he blew the house in. And he ate up the poor first little pig.

Then the second little pig went away to make a house. He met a man with some sticks. And he said to the man: „Please, sir, will you sell me a few sticks to make a house?“ And the man said: „Why, you poor little pig! I will give you all the sticks you need to make a house.“

So the little pig made a house out of the sticks. He was very happy in it. Then Old Mr. Wolf came along. He went up to the little house of sticks, and said:

*„Little pig, little pig,
let me in!“*

But the little pig said:“

*„No, no, by the hair of my chinny-chinny-chin,
I will not you let in!“*

*„Then I will haff and I will puff,
and I will blow your house in.“*

So he huffed and puffed and he blew the house in. And he ate up the poor little pig.

Then the third pig went away to make a house. He met a man with some bricks. And he said to the man: „Please, sir, will you sell me a few of your bricks so I that may make a house?“ And the man said: „Why, you poor little pig! I will give you all the bricks you need to make a house.“

So the little pig made a house of bricks. He was very happy in it. Then Old Mr. Wolf came along. He went up to the little house of bricks, and said:

*„Little pig, little pig,
let me in!“*

But the little pig said:“

*„No, no, by the hair of my chinny-chinny-chin,
I will not you let in!“*

*„Then I will haff and I will puff,
and I will blow your house in.“*

So he huffed, and he puffed, and he puffed and he huffed, but he could not blow in the house made of bricks. Then the wolf said: „I will come down the chimney, then I will eat you up.“ But little pig made a big fire. „When the old wolf come down the chimney,“ said the little pig, „Fire will burn that Wolf. And wolf came through the chimney and fell into the fire. „Fire, fire burn wolf!“ said the pig – So the fire began to burn, and it burned, and it burned, untill it burned up Mr. Wolf. And that was the end of him.

1) Find in the text underlined words and follow your dictionary to translate them.

2) The bold words are irregullar verbs. Make a table with two columns – one is for present time, one for past time. Fill the colmunns like in example:

Present time	Past time
say	Said

3) Cut the cards with pictures and give them to the right order:
